Pocahontas County Courthouse

THE POCAHONTAS COUNTY COURTHOUSE

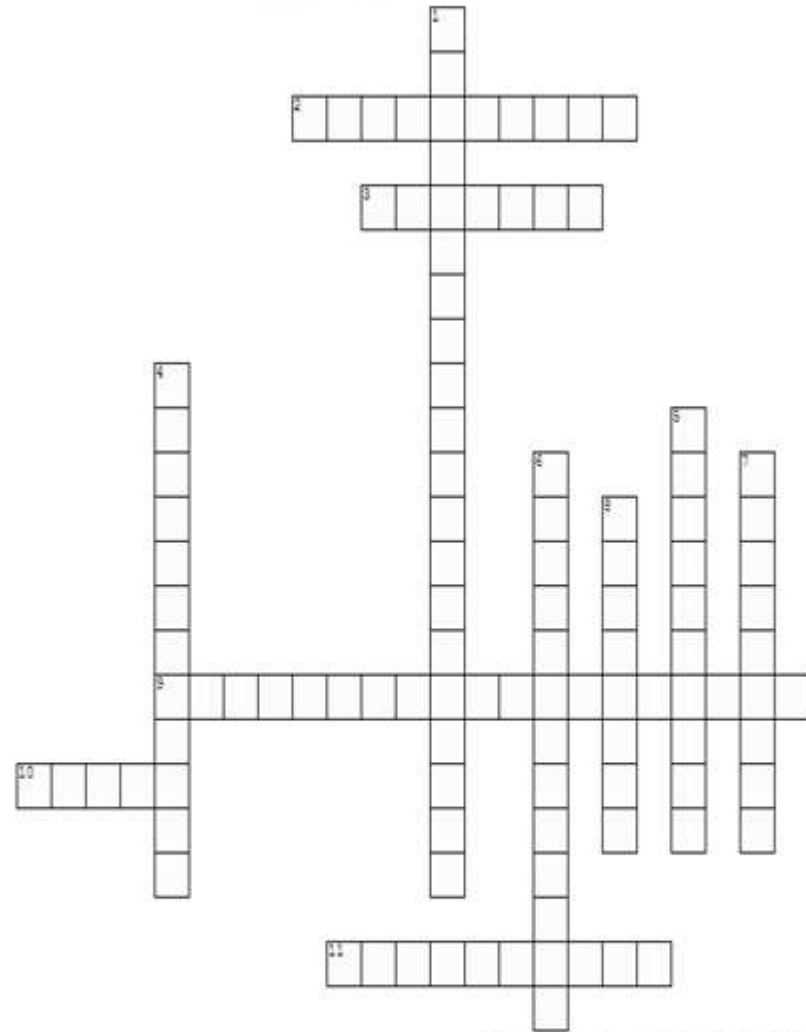

MARLINTON
WEST VIRGINIA

Pocahontas County was formed in 1821. The original courthouse was built at Huntersville, the first county seat. In 1891, the citizens of Pocahontas County voted to move the county seat to Marlinton. Marlinton was known as Marlin's Bottom until 1886. Construction of the courthouse began in 1893 on property which occupies a full city block on Tenth Avenue. At completion in 1895, the cost to build the courthouse was about $28,000.00. The courthouse is home to county government offices.
